using. We hope you can join us.

VE SESSION NETS 3 NEW HAMS...

A VE Session was held prior to the October meeting. Sara Bozeman (KD9ODV),
Stephen Kornita (KD9ODT) and Tim Strandt (KD9ODU) all passed their technician exams, and have received their call signs. Congratulations!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED...

The DAR Boys & Girls club will hold their 5k Speedo Run/Walk on December 14th, and we are looking for volunteers to work communications for traffic & safety. If interested contact Cal (K1SGW), Steve (K9STT), Mike (KD8FUE), or Gayle &
Lloyd (W9GCG and W9LEG).

MORE POTA...

KG8CX came across a YouTube video produced by KB9VBR on his Parks on the Air activations at Governor Thompson State Park & the Peshtigo River State Forest in Marinette County. Enjoy!

M&M AMATEUR RADIO CLUB MINUTES 10/10/19

The meeting was called to order by President Bruce Conover, N9CON, at 7:04pm at NWTC Marinette.

Members related their ham activities from the past month.

Three new Technicians were licensed at a VE Session held before the meeting.

Secretary's Report: Motion by W9LEG second by KD8FUE to approve minutes. Motion passed.

Treasurers Report: Mike, KD8FUE reported the balance is $3845.34

Property Clerk: Cal, K1SGW will report on the inventory at the next meeting.

Webmaster: Steve, K9STT, has been making some changes to the website. We are getting plenty of hits.

Education: Doug, KD8OVR reports we are looking at a Technician Class this winter, possibly an Extra Class, too.

Net Report: Ed, KG8CX reports net is doing fine, usually around 20 check ins.

HAT Team- Eric, KG9GH reports Paul Drees, WC9E will donate some of his towers and antennas to the club to enhance the treasury. The towers will need to be taken down soon. Paul is also looking for help selling some other equipment. Contact him if you can help.

Please let Eric know if you have any other projects.

Fundraising: Pete, AB9PJ has applied for a grant from Hannahville to pay for power supply and amp for the 147.000 repeater.

ARRL Liaison: Steve, K9STT reports we are up to date with ARRL.

Correspondence: None.

Old Business: Insurance Concerns: We have insurance for our projects. I other clubs have need to provide insurance certificates for their projects, they will need to provide that coverage. Doug, KD8OVR stated we should have waiver forms for HAT Team members and tower owners to sign. He will send samples to N9CON.

Club Logo: Motion by W9GCG, second by KG8CX to have samples of suggested logos posted on the website by the November meeting with a vote at the December meeting. Motion passed.

New Business: Motion by K9STT, second by KG9GH to send a check for $100 to the Jones family in appreciation of using their property for Field Day. Motion passed.

Mike, KD8FUE, will check locations for the Christmas Party. Several suggested locations were made by members Bruce, N9CON said we need to get documentation from Menominee County as to registration, insurance, and our permission to use their trailer. Mike, KD8FUE will talk to County Emergency Manager Tom Phillips about getting the documentation.

Steve, K9STT will look into accepting on-line payments.

Motion by AG9P second by W9LEG to adjourn. Motion approved.

Those in attendance: N9CON, KD8FUE, WA9BUD, KG8CX, KD9IGW, W9LEG, W9GCG, KD8OVR, N9GLT, K9STT, KG9GH, K8IR, AG9P.
